CALL FOR PAPERS

Abstract submissions in Greek or English are invited for consideration by the Academic Committee for this cross-disciplinary conference hosted by the Modern Greek section at Flinders University and the Foundation for Modern Greek Studies. Research papers on Greek or Cypriot themes from the wider spectrum of the following areas are welcome: Literature and Language, Classical Studies, Philosophy, Society and Culture, History and Migration. An invitation letter can be downloaded from the Conference website.

ABSTRACT: Please submit abstract (up to 200 words) using the online submission form on the Conference website.

CALL FOR PAPERS: By 28 February 2007 however, early submissions are encouraged as the number of presentations is limited.

PRESENTATIONS: 20 minute papers followed by 10 minute discussion time at the end of each session.

PROGRAM: Parallel sessions and panel discussions will be scheduled over 4 days and papers will be grouped according to area of research. Professional Development Seminars will be held for teachers of Modern Greek. The Program will be available on the website.

PUBLIC EVENTS: An exciting array of public lectures, book launches and cultural events will be presented from 24 – 27 June 2007 for delegates and the general public.

REGISTRATION: Early registration fee is $AUD 110.00 and ends 1 June 2007. Standard registration fee is $AUD132.00. Concession/unwaged student fee is $AUD55.00. The conference dinner, social event and accommodation are extra.

LOCATION: Adelaide, South Australia

PUBLICATION: All papers will be considered for publication in a volume of refereed Conference Proceedings and launched at the 2009 Conference.
