Dear Colleague

You are invited to participate in the 7th International Conference on Greek Research hosted by the Modern Greek section at Flinders University and the Foundation for Modern Greek Studies on 28 June – 1 July 2007 in Adelaide, South Australia.

This is a cross-disciplinary conference on Greek or Cypriot themes and research papers, in Greek or English, from the wider spectrum of the following areas are welcome: Literature and Language, Classical Studies, Philosophy, Society and Culture, History and Migration. Papers will be grouped according to the area of research and in some cases wider panel discussions will be organized. The Conference Program will include quality Professional Development seminars for teachers of Modern Greek in South Australia and research papers on language teaching will be presented during the Conference. The seminars will be facilitated by academics from Greece who specialize in the field of Education and co-presented with the Modern Greek Language Teachers Association of South Australia and the Modern Greek Consultancy Service in South Australia, R-12.

CALL FOR PAPERS: By 28 February 2007 however, early submissions are encouraged as the number of presentations is limited.

ABSTRACT: Please submit abstracts (up to 200 words) using the online submission form on the Conference website.

PRESENTATIONS: 20 minute papers will be presented followed by 10 minute discussion time at the end of each session.

PUBLIC EVENTS: Public lectures, book launches and cultural events will be held as during the week before the conference, at which both delegates and the general public are welcome.

PROGRAM: The program listing conference papers and public events will be available on the website after April 2007.

REGISTRATION: Early registration fee is $AUD110.00 (before 1 June 2007). Standard registration fee is $AUD132.00. Concession/unwaged student fee is $AUD55.00. Online registration will open from 6 March 2007. (Form can also be submitted via post or fax.) Registration fee entitlements are: Conference satchel, 2005 Conference Proceedings, entrance to all conference sessions, welcome reception, morning and afternoon teas and lunches.
during the conference and travel to and from the recommended motel to the conference venue.

EXPENSES: Cost of accommodation, conference dinner, social event and extra meals and travel are not included in the registration fee. Grants for air travel tickets are not available. Financial support for accommodation may be available for overseas delegates, depending on fundraising. If provided, a voucher will be included in the registration satchel.

PUBLICATION: All papers will be considered for publication in a volume of refereed Conference Proceedings and launched at the 2009 Conference.

The biennial international conference hosted by the Modern Greek section of the Department of Languages is becoming an increasingly popular and high profile event. Conferences held in previous years have been very successful and many of the papers presented have been published in a series of refereed conference proceedings.

The official opening of the 2007 Conference and the launch of the 2005 Conference Proceedings is expected to be held at Parliament House in South Australia and all delegates, sponsors and financial supporters are invited to attend this celebration.

We advise prospective overseas delegates to tentatively book their air ticket from now to ensure a seat.

Thank you for your interest in the 7th International Conference on Greek Research. We encourage postgraduate candidates and people who have recently completed a master’s or doctorate, as well as established academics and professionals to present papers. Multiple authored papers are also welcome. We look forward to hearing from you soon.

On behalf of the Conference Steering Committee, Kind regards

Michael Tsianikas
Associate Professor of Modern Greek
Modern Greek Coordinator, Department of Languages
Conference Convenor
